

“Discovering Tony Rice”

An oral biography of the legendary bluegrass guitarist and singer, a deep dive via extensive interviews with his oldest music colleagues:

Sam Bush, Jerry Douglas,
Béla Fleck, Peter Rowan,
Mark Schatz, and others.

Their stories about Tony – who he was, how he picked, his obsessions and his loves, what he learned and had to teach, what he believed and how he lived – reveal a man no one knew in entirety.

“Discovering Tony Rice”

by Bill Amatneek

published by Vineyards Press
Sebastopol, California

260 pp., 57 images, Color interior

Hardback – $50.00

ISBN: 978-1-928578-34-5

Paperback – $30.00

ISBN: 978-1-928578-33-8

Available at VineyardsPress.com

“A deeply researched and detailed book about a highly talented and complicated artist.”

– Steve Martin

For speaking, podcast, and radio engagements, email to editor@vineyardspress.com

About the Author

Bill played with Tony on the original DGQ album, one that created the genre “New Acoustic Music.” He officiated Tony’s marriage to the love of his life, Leela, and played string bass with Rowan & Rice.

Bill has authored four books and been published in Down Beat, Rolling Stone, Bluegrass Unlimited, and Yoga Journal. He is anthologized in “Encounters with Bob Dylan” and “Heart of a Man.”